A Rocky Hill School student is a Navigator, Critical Thinker, Citizen, and Communicator, who is Innovative, Self-Aware, Ethical, and Globally-Minded.

Navigator
You are curious and self-directed, approaching learning with nimbleness, adaptability, perseverance, and resilience.

"My Senior Internship exposed me to fields of scientific discovery I had not previously considered, but am now passionately invested in, as well as taught me valuable career skills that have served me well in my time at college. The people at Gordon Research Conferences also encouraged me to find projects I was interested in, allowed me to pursue them, and even invited me to advertise and promote the company."

– Hunter C. '17

"My 8th Grade Expedition on nuclear energy was a new learning experience for me. Coordinating the many aspects of the project, from my research, to interviews, to the presentation, taught me to be a more resourceful and independent student."

– Lily K. '21

Self-Aware
You are confident in your personal strengths, attentive to your needs, empathetic to others, and honor your health and well-being.

"At Rocky Hill, I have learned who I am, what I can do, and how I learn best. I know when I get to high school, and even college, it’s going to be easier for me because of that."

– Derek B. '23

Communicator
You are a poised and resourceful communicator, able to skillfully express yourself in many modalities for a variety of audiences.

"By participating in the Ranksness discussion-based classroom method, I now navigate conversations eloquently and passionately. I am able to express my opinions and thoughts, while still appreciating and encouraging contributions of others."

– Olivia D. '18

Innovative
You are a bold thinker, generating new and creative ideas, and willing to take risks to solve complex problems, individually and as a part of a group.

"The leadership at Rocky Hill School is connected to global visionaries and idea-makers who are setting future policy and tech trends, giving the school the edge needed to adjust curriculum, and create opportunities that translate into new collaborations for everyone involved."

– Susan Fonseca, CEO and Founder of Weaveness/TheFrontier, Co-Founding Member of Singularity University, Innovator-in-Residence at Rocky Hill School

Globally-Minded
You value diversity and different perspectives, understand global issues, and approach the world with an open mind.

"The third grade’s UN Global Goals project has taught me that we need to have gender equality in the world to make sure we have an equal amount of male and female leaders so that all peoples’ voices are heard."

– Gabriel B. '27

Critical Thinker
You ask meaningful questions, develop important knowledge, and use research, analysis, and interpretation to evaluate evidence, arguments, and beliefs.

"In my class ‘Know Thy Place: The Urban Scene,’ I have improved my ability to analyze the facts and evidence that I collect through research and to form my own interpretation in the process of completing my project, class discussion and the constructive advice given by my classmates have helped me develop a better understanding of the class topics."

– Lipcan Z. '19

Ethical
You act with honesty, integrity, and a focus on social responsibility.

"In accordance with our yearly Equity and Inclusion themes, community members and outside speakers offer our students and faculty an opportunity to reflect on what an authentically inclusive school environment resembles. These addresses serve as a platform for discussion of social justice both within and outside the school walls."

– Matthew Groffen, Director of Diversity

Citizen
You are a responsible and engaged member of communities, seeking ways to lead and model good citizenship through kindness and respect for others, in physical and digital domains.

"Every morning in advisory, we all share our own stories with each other. This environment of respect and trust gives me a better perspective of my classmates and helps us to come together and be more comfortable in class."

– Dudley S. '24
Having a whale of a time at Rocky Hill 😍
Wishing all of the Rocky Hill families a wonderful 2018-2019 school year!

“You can teach a student a lesson for a day; but if you can teach him to learn by creating curiosity, he will continue the learning process as long as he lives.”
